

Concord July 15th 1872.

Dear Mr. Chaunter,

We shall expect you by the 12 train on Saturday.
If you do not come then by one of the afternoon trains.

11 A.M. 2.35 and 4.1 P.M. are the times from the Fitchburg Station for Concord. Come by the earliest if you can and with freedom to spend some days of rest & work. Always particularly desires me to say, that she "hopes you will not hurry away," and my own claims, are they less than indifference!

We expect Louisa will have returned from Hampshire and be with us by that time. But Mr Davis will, of course, draw you from us to Boston you stay with us.

We regretted much to have lost your stay at Framingham.
The Lubber's illness left her no choice, and she had looked forward to me. You must have had a delightful reunion.

Come and make it better than it was in the telling.

I hope to have the last plate of my "Days" to show you when you come, — your contribution, to the test to surprise you. When one puts his correspondence into his book and shall be the penally?

Affectionately

J. Bronson & Co.
